RezLive.com, the global B2B online booking system has added an array of new features and improved its interface to better meet the needs of its travel partners.

A press release said that RezLive.com now offers 175,000 hotel and apartment rooms, more than 45,000 sightseeing items and over 5000 tours in 500 cities and more than 5000 transfer options in over 900 airport and city locations.

Jaal Shah, group managing director – travel designer group and founder of award winning global reservation system, Rezlive.com, said, “We are a global supplier of accommodation, sightseeing and transfer services to our travel partners across the globe and are currently connected with more than 11,000 active travel partners. We have been consistently providing the best and biggest inventory to the travel partners globally, by sourcing them through multiple suppliers and contracting with hotel chains across the globe. Our travel partners trust us to deliver and support them 365 days because of our vast experience, healthy relationship with suppliers and hotel chains and local market understanding. We give our travel partners the platform to create their future and prosper together.”
